

Format of the question paper

- Total 100 marks - Mercantile Law 50 marks - Company Law 50 marks. Passing marks 50% on aggregate basis.
- 30% questions will be objective types. Remaining 70% marks will be comprised of knowledge (40%) and application (60%) based questions, having maximum weightage of 08 marks each question.

Paper would be divided into three sections comprising about 10 questions:

Section A – Multiple Choice Questions

30 objective type questions of 1 mark each, 15 from mercantile and 15 from company law portion.

Section B – Mercantile Law

Knowledge based questions with total 14 marks (40% of remaining 35 marks). These questions may comprise of single questions and questions in parts but not more than 8 marks each.

Application based questions with total 21 marks (60% of remaining 35 marks). These questions may comprise of single questions and questions in parts but not more than 8 marks each.

Section C – Company Law

Knowledge based questions with total 14 marks (40% of remaining 35 marks). These questions may comprise of single questions and questions in parts but not more than 8 marks each.

Application based questions with total 21 marks (60% of remaining 35 marks). These questions may comprise of single questions and questions in parts but not more than 8 marks each.

- The examination will comprise of questions drawn across all the syllabus areas.
- Questions are divided in to sub questions.
- Time allowed: 3 Hours.
- Additional 15 minutes for reading the question papers.